

EUGENE DEBS TAKES TRIP TO WASHINGTON

GOES UNATTENDED TO CONSULT WITH THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

Newspapermen Gasp When Mr. Daugherty Tells Them of Debs' Visit—Trip Had the Approval of President Harding—No Comment on Debs' Presentment of His Case

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 24.—Unattended and without the knowledge of the public, Eugene V. Debs, imprisoned Socialist leader, came to Washington today from Atlanta penitentiary and for three hours discussed his case with Attorney General Daugherty.

The unprecedented trip of Mr. Debs was made with the approval of President Harding who recently requested Mr. Daugherty to review the Debs case and make a recommendation.

The attorney general in announcing that Debs had visited Washington and was on his way back to Atlanta, said it had been decided in conference with President Harding that inasmuch as Debs had defended himself at his trial he should come here to answer in person such inquiries as the government desires to ask.

Debs arrived early in the day, went to the department about 9:30 o'clock, conferred with Mr. Daugherty and Guy D. Goff, assistant to the attorney general, from about 10:30 to 1:30 o'clock, and left Washington at 2:30 o'clock on the return trip to prison. His movements from the time he left Atlanta yesterday were kept strictly secret.

Newspapermen Gasp
For that reason newspapermen who gathered late in the day for the attorney general's weekly conference, gasped when they heard Mr. Daugherty say:

"I don't believe I have much news for you, gentlemen, but regarding Debs' visit, I have had a statement prepared."

Then, with a brief explanation, Mr. Daugherty gave out the following statement:

"In connection with the investigation of the Debs case and after conference with the president and with his approval, I had Debs come here for the purpose of making certain inquiries of him, he has returned to Atlanta. I have asked him to refrain from saying anything for publication or otherwise regarding the subject of the inquiries made. What took place and the information I have acquired, will be reported in due time only to the president, and that in connection with any recommendation that may be made when the investigation is concluded."

Refuses to Comment
Mr. Daugherty refused to comment on the presentment made by Debs of his case and declined to answer any questions as to what recommendation he would make to the president relative to the Socialist leader, convicted and sentenced in 1918 to ten years' imprisonment for violation of the espionage act.

Debs, Mr. Daugherty said, looked and acted during his visit much as any other man. He was said to be in fairly good physical condition, although apparently somewhat nervous. The prisoner's physical condition, Mr. Daugherty added, necessarily would be taken into consideration by the government in its decision.

The attorney general, in his talk with newspapermen, emphasized that the calling of Debs to Washington did not mean the adoption of a policy of general amnesty toward political prisoners, but was to facilitate the investigation of the Debs case.

Trip Shrouded in Secrecy
ATLANTA, Ga., March 24.—The departure from the Atlanta Federal penitentiary yesterday of Eugene V. Debs, who discussed his case with Attorney General Daugherty in Washington today, was shrouded in secrecy.

The fact that Debs had left the prison was the subject of rumor last night, but even his local attorney knew nothing about it, according to his own statement.

Fred C. Zerbst, warden, avoided questioning by keeping his whereabouts concealed and late today was located for a few minutes, declined to discuss the matter.

The unprecedented trip alone and unguarded to Washington, as announced by the attorney general, was the first time the former Socialist nominee for the presidency had left the penitentiary since he was sent there in 1918.

Debs was expected to return Friday and to resume his prison duties in the hospital ward of the penitentiary. He has been regarded as a model prisoner, according to a recent statement of the warden, and so far as known has only once been disciplined. That was on the occasion of his criticism of President Wilson, shortly before the latter retired from office.

VIVIANI WILL BE RECEPTIVE TO OVERTURES

Prepared to Listen to Any Peace Plans U. S. Has to Offer

NO ARRANGEMENTS FOR HIS RECEPTION

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 24.—While the visit of Rene Viviani, former French premier and special envoy to the United States is announced officially as one of courtesy to President Harding, Dr. Marcel Knecht, his general secretary, who arrived today from France, stated that M. Viviani was prepared to give a receptive ear to proposals regarding the peace settlement and the league of nations.

M. Viviani will make no specific overtures in the direction of American participation in European affairs, particularly as affecting Germany, it was stated, and unless the subject is initiated by President Harding or the state department.

Dr. Knecht said M. Viviani would probably also meet members of the cabinet and congressmen.

In emphasizing that M. Viviani was bringing no concrete proposal to offer with respect to its relations politically or financially with France and Europe, Dr. Knecht stated that the French envoy was accompanied by no experts or advisers and that Stephen Lauzanne the French journalist was coming only as a representative of LeMatin of which he is editor.

In diplomatic circles, it is believed that should M. Viviani find the occasion propitious for an informal discussion of the administration's attitude toward the settlement of peace with Germany he would be ready to receive the proposals of President Harding for transmission to the French government.

They would be studied by the French foreign office, was suggested, upon M. Viviani's return and it might then be made incumbent upon him to return to the United States to engage in what ever it might be proposed that the allies enter upon with the United States for the clearing up of the latter's relations as a former associate power with the allies.

The problem of American cooperation with the allies in the peace settlement in which on the part of France M. Viviani is interested will be brought to the forefront of consideration by the state department upon his arrival, was indicated today by a responsible official of the department, who said the mission was accepted as directed toward the furtherance of the good relations existing between the republics.

Also it was announced by Dr. Knecht that M. Viviani would visit the United States as an envoy extraordinary with the rank of ambassador, it was learned that no special arrangements have been made for his reception similar to those with which he was attended upon his visit in 1917.

Many Voice Approval
Appended to Mr. Parker's letter were more than 250 names of prominent men and women who, he said, had voiced their approval of the resolution.

The telegram to Secretary Hoover, signed by E. R. Hooker, chairman of the board of trustees of the American Defense Society, expressed gratification "on your prompt reaction against the insidious proposals which recently have come out of Russia."

"Neither friendship nor trade with Russia," the message said, "is possible in this nation until it has shaken off the incubus which now destroys liberty, religion and peace in that country."

Buffalo, N. Y., March 24.—Scoring a total of 686 pins, Frank Snyder, of Erie, Pa., today rolled into second place on the individual event in the accounting for congress, accounting for gains of 236, 248, 202. Two errors in the eighth and ninth frames of the third game cost him a chance to top the high score of 702 pins, held by Fred Smith, of Detroit.

The high set by Snyder featured today's rolling in the doubles and singles, a 440 total by H. Olsen, of Erie, leading the next high count in the individual event.

CAPT. R. G. PECK KILLED IN FIGHT

Belfast, March 24.—The officer killed in the fight yesterday morning between a detachment of Lancers and Sinn Feiners between Stokestown and Longford, was Captain R. G. Peck, a relative of Sir Wilfred Peck, whose death in this engagement was originally reported.

Sir Wilfred was a captain of the Royal First Devon Yeomanry and distinguished himself in the European war. His wife was Miss Edwina W. Thornburgh of St. Louis, Mo.

Bolshevism Throttles Union Labor In Russia

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, March 24.—G. B. Stroomillo, a Russian labor leader who arrived here this week and conferred yesterday with President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor tonight made a statement regarding present Russian conditions.

He quoted Mr. Gompers as upholding the position taken by Russian labor against Bolshevism and promising that Stroomillo's arguments about the distressing experiences of working men and peasants would be distributed for the information of American labor.

Mr. Gompers, the Russian said, authorized him to say, "that the labor movement in the United States would not give countenance to Bolshevism, either in this country or Russia."

Mr. Stroomillo is a member of trade unions of metal workers of the Perm district and was delegated by the trade unions of Ural to visit other countries to warn labor against Bolshevism principles.

Equipped with statistics concerning the destruction of Russia's industries, transport and agriculture under the Bolshevik regime, he said, he is prepared to show that "conditions of the workingman under the Bolshevik dictatorship of the system of militarization of labor are even worse than those of the peasants."

Freedom Is Abolished.
"As the result of destruction of industries," said Mr. Stroomillo, the Russian proletariat has been reduced to a state of semi-slavery. The Russian working class shares the gratitude which all the Russian people feel toward the people of the United States for their policy of unselfish friendship toward Russia."

The statement by Secretary Hoover declaring that the trade treaty concluded by the Bolsheviks with Great Britain is not a trade treaty but purely a political move both on the part of the Bolsheviks and the government of Great Britain was praised by Mr. Stroomillo.

WOULD INCREASE RATE FOR COOK

Committee on Legislation So Recommends at Meeting Thursday

WILL PUT FIFTY CENT RATE IN EFFECT

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, March 24.—An increase in the property tax rate of Cook county from 36 2/3 to 50 cents on the $100 was recommended unanimously today at a meeting of the committee on legislation of the Cook county board of commissioners.

A delegation of eighteen county officials was appointed to go to Springfield next Tuesday, when a bill to make this increase will be before the state legislature for a hearing.

The 50 cent rate is now in force in many downstate counties. This higher rate permits other counties to place a lower assessment value on their property, thereby paying less tax to the state without receiving less revenue from taxation than does Cook county, according to many of the commissioners.

Changed Their Votes
At previous hearings, testimony of other executives showed that Mr. Besler and Mr. Loomis, who originally voted for national boards later joined the minority led by W. W. Atterbury, of the Pennsylvania, which declared for local boards. The minority report was later adopted by the member roads.

Mr. Byram remained a consistent member of the majority. Labor began today its task of refuting the arguments of the carriers against national agreements. B. M. Jewell, president of the employees department of the American Federation of Labor started to dispose of the approximately 10,000 printed pages of argument and the board ordered the hearings to run thru Friday and Saturday, days usually reserved for executive sessions.

GERMANY READY TO GIVE HER SUPPORT

PARCELONA, March 24.—The announcement by one of the German delegates to the conference on communications and transit that Germany was ready to support every movement for freedom of waterways was loudly applauded. The English delegates' pleasure was especially noticeable.

Baron Treutler, who made the announcement at today's session said Germany had been engaged for 50 years improving her internal waterways and she had received with great satisfaction the invitation of the league of nations to participate in the present discussions to which she was ready to offer the experience she had gained.

GREATEST MAN HUNT IN HISTORY IS ON IN CENTRAL WEST

Twenty Five Hundred Patrolmen Have Orders to Shoot to Kill

REWARD OF $2,500 IS OFFERED FOR ARREST

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, March 24.—The greatest man hunt in the history of Chicago was extended to cover the entire central west tonight in the search for "Tommy" O'Connor, who last night shot his way to liberty thru a cordon of policemen, killing Detective Sergeant Patrick O'Neill.

With orders to shoot to kill more than 2,500 patrolmen searched the city for the fleeing gunman and slayer. Rifle squads were sent to scour surrounding towns, heavily armed patrolmen in automobiles and on motorcycles kept a constant patrol of the outlying districts.

First reports indicated that "O'Connor" might have boarded a Burlington train bound for Denver at Aurora, but a search of the train proved fruitless.

Hand bills putting a price of $2,500 on his head "dead or alive" were sent thruout Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin.

O'Connor is described as being thirty years old, five feet, eight inches tall, weight 145 pounds, medium chestnut hair, fair complexion, hair sometimes pompadour and sometimes parted on right side, hazel-gray-blue eyes, clean shaven, or with small sandy mustache and mole on one wrist.

O'Connor, under indictment in connection with the killing of a man who had befriended him while he was a fugitive from justice, was trapped in the house of his brother-in-law last night. Seven patrolmen surrounded the house when O'Connor appeared with two pistols one in each hand and shot down O'Neill as the latter stood beside a porch. As he fell O'Connor put another bullet thru O'Neill's back and fled.

A few blocks away O'Connor stopped the automobile of W. R. Condon, a broker and forced him to drive him for miles. Finally the bandit took the wheel himself, turning Condon loose.

O'Connor is declared by the police to have been one of the worst "two gunners" in the city. His consistent boast has been that he would never be taken alive.

THIRTY KILLED IN RIOTS IN HAMBURG

(By The Associated Press)

HAMBURG, March 24.—Not less than thirty persons were killed in the riots here yesterday. Thus far twenty-eight are known to be seriously wounded. The communist-led revolt in the middle industrial area is believed to be receding, although minor outbreaks are reported in no sections. The situation is critical at Eisleben, where the reds at noon were in unchallenged control of the city.

Detachments of security police are due there before night; they are being hurried from Magdeburg and elsewhere to effect a junction with the local troops who are still besieged in a school house and the fire of the communists. Eisleben is virtually cut off from rail communication with Halle and other points. Youthful rioters are looting the shops at Eisleben, Mansfeld and other nearby points. The communists are not being given the support of organized labor and it is believed the present outbreak on this account, will be short lived.

In Hamburg the police are breaking up communist gatherings and protecting the three big ship yards. Business is proceeding normally in Hamburg.

STATE DEPARTMENT WILL TAKE NO ACTION

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 24.—The state department has taken no action and expects to take none in connection with the killing last Saturday at Bremen, Germany of Captain J. C. Moller of the American Steamer Derango, by J. McGowan, second officer, it was said today. Altho Moller was a naturalized citizen of this country and McGowan a resident of Texas, officials explained that because of the existence of a technical state of war with Germany the transfer of McGowan to the jurisdiction of Bremen authorities to the United States for trial was hardly possible.

CARDINAL GIBBONS DEATH IS CAUSE OF WIDESPREAD GRIEF

President Harding and Other Prominent Public Men Send Expressions of Sympathy—Finest Type of Citizen and Churchmen Says the President—Other Tributes

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 24.—News of the death of Cardinal Gibbons was received today with widespread sadness. Officials from President Harding down expressed sorrow at the death of the primate of American Catholic hierarchy and paid tribute to him.

The president in a message to the Rev. Owen B. Corrigan, auxiliary bishop of Baltimore, said the death of the cardinal was a distinct loss to the country.

Vice President Coolidge praised the cardinal's scholarship, patriotism and devout piety.

Secretary Weeks characterized the cardinal's death as "an irreparable loss to his church and his country."

Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, Republican leader, described the cardinal as a "man who inspired affection in every one."

Harding's Message
"In common with all our people, I mourn the death of Cardinal Gibbons," President Harding's message said. "His long and notable service to the country and to church makes us all his debtors. He was ever ready to lend his encouragement to any movement for the betterment of his fellowmen. He was the finest type of citizen and churchman."

"It was my good fortune to know him personally, and I held him in the highest esteem and veneration. His death is a distinct loss to the country, but it brings to fuller appreciation a great and admirable life."

"The death of Cardinal Gibbons is a great loss to the country," said Senator Lodge. "I had the pleasure of knowing him and had a very high regard for him, for he was a man who inspired affection in every one. He was a thorough American in all his feelings."

Active service of more than half a century in the interests of his country as well as his church is closed by the death of James Cardinal Gibbons. At the celebration, in 1911, of the twenty-fifth anniversary of his elevation to the cardinalate, His Eminence, out of all the tributes paid him, expressed himself as most affected by that of William Howard Taft, his intimate friend, and then President, who said:

"Thru his long and useful life Cardinal Gibbons has spared no effort in the cause of good citizenship and the uplifting of his fellowmen."

"You have portrayed your subject, not I fear, as he is, but as he should be," responded the Cardinal. "One merit only can I claim, and that is an ardent love for my native country and her political institutions. I consider the Republic of the United States one of the most precious heirlooms ever bestowed on mankind down the ages. It is the duty and should be the delight of every citizen to strengthen and perpetuate our government by observance of its laws and by the integrity of the public life."

Widened Strong Influence.
Cardinal Gibbons, as senior Bishop of the church, wielded a strong influence outside as well as within the United States. This confidant of three popes, he made several important trips to Rome, the last in August, 1914, a few days after the opening of the war to elect the successor to Pius X. He arrived too late, however, to participate in the ceremony that elevated Benedict to the Pontificate.

Upon returning to the United States he visited President Wilson, informed the latter of affairs in Europe and discussed means to bring about peace. The Cardinal was strongly interested in the affairs of the church in Mexico during the troublous times in that country and declared that he feared fighting should never cease under the Carranza regime. It was largely as a result of his efforts that the condition of the clergy and nuns of Mexico was ameliorated.

Cardinal Gibbons was active in his work for the allies in the war and in a letter written to the Catholics of the archdiocese of New York in 1917 when the United States entered the conflict, urged the fullest support of the government. A few months previously he sent $10,000 to the American committee in London for the relief of the Belgians, one of the many notable instances of his benevolence. In a sermon at Baltimore, in 1918, he praised the speech by Lloyd George and said that Germany's war aims

The trouble with the proposed law which would make highway robbery a capital offense is that justice could seldom be had and that would impose the penalties.

The Milwaukee brewers are familiar with history. They have no thought of beginning the manufacture of real beer until they have some more certain basis for action than the recently published opinion of Former Attorney General Palmer.

Armistice Day will be a regular holiday in Illinois. If a bill introduced in the legislature becomes a law. Certainly that is a date so important in history that there should be no trouble in securing a sufficient strength to bring about the bill's adoption. The first Armistice day brought joy to millions of hearts, a vast number of them in the home country and still other millions overseas.

Visitors to the D. A. R. conference found something especially appropriate in having some of their organization sessions in the Pilgrim Memorial. They found, too, that this most recent addition to the church facilities of Jacksonville had evidently been planned for the proper handling of just such gatherings.

Secretary Week of the war department, warmly supported by Secretary Hughes of the state department, has assured the people that a determined effort will be made to bring about the arrest of Grover C. Bergdoll, wealthy draft dodger, for months past on German soil, arrogantly flaunting his escape from American authorities. There is no doubt now about the firm intention of the United States in this matter and likewise, there is no doubt but that Bergdoll will eventually be brought to justice.

A few weeks ago the story ran that Springfield young men had spent a moment or two in prayer before they had entered on the final game of the basketball tournament. Now another story from the capital lists "rolling the bones" as one of the favorite pastimes of the young ladies of that city. If both stories are true, Springfield may get in the Providence, R. I., class, for recent events in that city have credited its young men with higher standards of conduct than those maintained by the young women.

There seems to be something to the report that the big film producers have determined to put a ban on questionable pictures. The allied Amusement Corp. of California has just gone on record against any film productions in which Clara Smith Hamon is featured.

If the producers consistently follow this course they will speedily convince the public of the consistency of their better pictures campaign. With consistent action the need of censorship will disappear.

Senator Buck's bill to change the road building program to include the improvement of earth roads and the use of gravel roads will help in bringing about the show down on the good roads program. It is the high cost of certain materials that influenced Gov. Small in delaying the building program. The show down is needed, not for determining the governor's purposes, but that of the material manufacturers, for evidently some way must be found to reduce road construction costs before any very extensive building program can be carried out.

WHEN THE LILIES BUD AND BLOOM

When the lilies bud and bloom,
Wafting fragrance far and wide,
Bursting from their winter's tomb—
Then's the joyous Easter tide.
Near the Galilean's tomb,
On a morn of rosy light,
Christ had conquered shade and gloom,
Dawn of joy, dispelling gloom,
Promised freedom from the strife,
In the rending of the tomb,
Promise of eternal life.
In our hearts new hope is born,
For the rending of our tomb,
For our resurrection morn,
When the lilies bud and bloom.

GAVE FINE PROGRAM IN RECITAL HALL

Students in Expression Gave Proof of Excellent Work Done Under Supervision of Mrs. Perry C. Thompson.

The excellent program presented by first year students of the expression department of Illinois college under the direction of Mrs. Perry C. Thompson, Thursday evening in recital hall, was thoroughly appreciated by a splendid audience.

In the careful interpretation of each number one could not fail to see the high ideals that characterize the work of this department. These students all began their study with Mrs. Thompson in September, and this varied and artistic program plainly showed conscientious work and careful training. A sincerity of purpose and ease of manner was noticeable throughout the entire program, and revealed truly the real participation of the interpreter. On account of recent illness Miss Cheney was not able to appear.

In the "Revolt of Tildy Mears" Miss Mary Nair gave with charming sympathy the over-worked plainwoman's revolt against ranch life which is finally over-shadowed by her love and devotion to her family. A little Tennyson's "Lady Clara," a lovely little poem was beautifully given by Miss Velma Matthews.

In the humorous monologue, "Mothers Nap," the many cares of the mother of young children were depicted very cleverly by Miss Amy Moody. Miss Irma Bower's interpretation of the petulant maiden's visit to the "Heart Shop" in quest of a heart with "Love" as shop-keeper was charming in its ease and grace.

The scene from the new play of J. Hartley Manners brought out the lesson that happiness does not come to the discontented idle but only in service to others, to those who are courageous in misfortune. Miss Grace Pond's characterizations of the various characters were clear cut and distinct and showed careful study.

Miss Maud Dorr gave "The Song and the Man" with lovely sympathy and dramatic power. The last number was exquisitely done by Irma Bower and Levon Shunk. Austin Dobson's dainty little sketch "Secrets of the Heart" proving a beautiful ending to a program that was entertaining through.

A Delightful Party.
On Wednesday afternoon the group of Illinois college girls, comprising the members of the gymnasium class and the students of the expression department were entertained by their instructor, Mrs. Perry C. Thompson, at her home, 1124 West College avenue.

Merry out-of-door games were followed by unity refreshments. Prizes and decorations were carried out with suggestions of Easter.

Mrs. Thompson was assisted by Mrs. Rammekamp and the women of the faculty.

This delightful party was deeply appreciated by the girls and followed the close of the gymnasium work.

would fall. About the same time he expressed Benedict's war policy, an article which so pleased the Pope that he ordered it translated and published broadcast. In it he asserted sympathy with the allied aim of winning the war for permanent peace. To achieve this result he also expressed opposition to a cessation of hostilities when Austria made fresh overtures.

Half Century as Bishop.
Celebrating his 50th anniversary as Bishop in Baltimore, on October 21, 1918, an event attended by ecclesiastics from all over the world, he received among many other gifts the decoration of Grand Officer of the Legion of Honor from France. Italy also decorated him. A month later he joined with former President Roosevelt and others who had been friends for years, in a message of cheer to the American Expeditionary Forces. On June 20, 1919, he observed his 23rd anniversary as Cardinal Archbishop and the 50th year of his priesthood. Cardinal Mercier, the heroic primate of Belgium, visited him on this occasion.

The Cardinal's local, economic and sociological views were frequently sought by newspapers. In interviews he endorsed the plan for the establishment of the Jewish Homeland in Palestine, he opposed the government ownership of public utilities, maintained that prohibition meant "the invasion of home and sacramental practices," condemned divorce, praised the work of the Salvation Army in France, favored American military training, impudently demanded that the Turk should be driven from Europe and appealed to the public to support America's entrance into the League of Nations. At a convention of Irish Nationalists in Philadelphia he expressed the hope that the Paris peace conference would make it possible "to free Ireland." He was one of the advocates of Neighbor Day, for stimulating fraternity and community spirit among Americans. In a proclamation he designated June 12 for this observance.

Born in Baltimore.
Born in Baltimore, Md., of Irish parents July 17, 1834, James Gibbons spent his youth in Ireland, but when he was a lad of 14 years his family returned to America, settling in New Orleans where he acted as "punctual grocer's boy."

"I look back to those early days of hard work with pride," he said in speaking of his boyhood. "I am a firm believer in the school of hard and honest labor."

His ambition for the priesthood began in those early days. At 21 he began preparations for his service in the Roman Catholic church. Graduating with distinguished honor from historic St. Charles College in Maryland, he pursued his studies at the Seminary of St. Sulpice and St. Mary's University in Baltimore. At the outbreak of the Civil war he was ordained to the priesthood in Baltimore. He was 37 years old. His heart was moved by the tragedy he witnessed and through life he was strongly opposed to war.

"The average American is a lover of peace," he frequently remarked. "He stands for peace at home and abroad. Let us hope that international disputes will soon be decided not by standing armies, but by permanent courts of arbitration."

Advanced Rapidly.
At the close of the Civil war, Father Gibbons became private secretary to Archbishop Spalding and was appointed chancellor of the diocese. Thru strength of character he rapidly won his way. He was elected assistant chancellor to the second Plenary Council at Baltimore in 1866. Two years later, by a bull of Pope Pius IX, the young priest was translated to North Carolina where he served as titular bishop and first vicar apostolic.

His record in the southern state is remarkable. He traveled among his people from the sea to the mountains, eating from bare boards and sleeping in shabby cabins. Thus, it is said, he made the personal acquaintance of every adult Roman Catholic in North Carolina. He built six churches, established the Sisters of Mercy and built for them a school for negroes and whites.

"Religion teaches me that we are all children of the same Father," he once said. "We are all brothers and sisters of the same Redeemer, and consequently, members of the same family. It teaches me the brotherhood of humanity."

"The hard working young bishop was sent to Richmond in 1872. He built and enlarged schools, asylums and churches in Richmond, Petersburg and Portsmouth. His untiring labor attracted the attention of Archbishop Bayley of the Baltimore diocese. Thru his influence, Bishop Gibbons became his coadjutor. A few months later Archbishop Layley died. Bishop Gibbons, 43 years of age, became Archbishop of the diocese, then the highest dignity of the Roman Catholic church in the United States.

Headed Delegation to Rome.
As Archbishop, he headed the delegation of American prelates to Rome in 1883. He outlined their plans for the third plenary council to be held the next year. Pope Leo XIII appointed him to preside over the council. He directed the enactment of many decrees which were favorably approved by the ecclesiastical authorities. The brilliant executive ability of Archbishop Gibbons was immediately recognized. He was created a cardinal, a prince of the church, a quarter century after he had entered the priesthood. This was in 1886—he was then 52 years of age.

The impressive ceremonies took place in his home city and cathedral in Baltimore. In the presence of hierarchy of the church, Cardinal Gibbons was clothed in the insignia of the office. He arrived in Rome the following year and received the apostolic blessing and admission into the college of cardinals, the twenty-fifth in succession.

Cardinal Gibbons celebrated the centenary of the founding of the States in 1888. He convened the first national congress of Catholic prelates in the "United States in the same year. He laid the corner stone of the Catholic University in Washington, and was its chancellor since its foundation. He was the first Roman Catholic prelate in the United States to take part in the election of a pope, casting his ballot for Pius X.

Religion Only Solid Basis.
"Religion," he said shortly before his death, "is the only solid basis for society. Religion is to society what cement is to a modern building; it makes all parts compact and coherent. The teaching of Christ have been the basis of all Christian legislation for nearly 2,000 years and continue to be the light and guide for hundreds of millions of souls. Neither Solon nor Lycurgus nor Justinian nor Napoleon nor any other framer of laws ever exercised a tithe of the influence which the gospel of Christ exercises on the human races."

The last days of Cardinal Gibbons were spent among his friends in his native Baltimore. He was a picturesque figure on the streets. Notwithstanding his high office, His Eminence was one of the most democratic of Americans. During his daily walks about the city, he received the respectful salutations of persons of all faiths, responding with his genial and cordial smile whether to a policeman or a distinguished financier.

Cardinal Gibbons retained to the last a keen interest in sociology.

Opposed Woman Suffrage.
"We are confronted by at least three great evils," he said in a recent interview. "They are polygamy and divorce; imperfect education; and the tendency of our women to become more like men and less womanly. Woman occupies the throne in the home. She should not seek another one. That has been proved time and again in history and that is why I am opposed to woman suffrage."

The trend of the times and the power of the press as a protector of society greatly impressed Cardinal Gibbons during the last years of his life.

"This power of the press is incalculable," he said in speaking of recent developments. "Its argus, almost searchlight eye, is ever looking for the weak spot in humanity, to throw it into cold prominence. As a rule the public education, and the tendency are now public benefactions. The shattering of popular idols has of late become a thing of almost daily occurrence. It is a sad thing to contemplate, but it is an inevitable condition."

CARDINAL O'COLLINS NOW BECOMES HEAD OF CATHOLIC CHURCH

Succeeds Cardinal Gibbons
As Head of Church in America

PRaises DEAD CARDINAL'S LIFE WORK

(By The Associated Press)

BOSTON, March 24.—Cardinal O'Connell who with the passing of Cardinal Gibbons, becomes head of the Roman Catholic church in this country paid tribute to the late Cardinal today in the following words:

"The death of Cardinal Gibbons removes a foremost figure from America's national life. It means to the Catholic church in this country the loss of an eminent and distinguished churchman.

"Cardinal Gibbons was America's first and finest citizen. American born and American trained, he cherished America's traditions and for more than half a century was actively engaged in promoting noblest ideals of American life. The soundness of his judgment and the clearness of his vision made him a prudent counselor whose statesman sought when vital and complex problems called for solution.

"More still perhaps will Cardinal Gibbons be remembered as an illustrious churchman. Few great ecclesiastics in modern times have played so large and conspicuous part in the religious life of their country. He had been closely identified with the Catholic faith in America for fully sixty years. In his long, laborious life he embodied the noble traditions of those pioneer days and from the splendid prelates who governed the church in the period of her struggling weakness he imbibed the majestic spirit, with which he guided her so ably thru years of marvelous growth and development to her present position of prominence and power."

State D. A. R. Conference Has Closed Sessions

Mrs. H. E. Chubbuck Again Named Regent of State—Few Changes in List of Officers—Notable Address Made by Mrs. George Maynard Minor

Special interest at the Thursday sessions of the state D. A. R. conference centered about the election of officers and the address made by Mrs. George Maynard Minor of Washington, D. C., president general of the D. A. R. of the U. S.

The conference decided to place a memorial tablet in the Gov. Duncan Memorial Home here in memory of Eileen Hardin Walworth, daughter of Gen. John J. Hardin. The decision was reached to hold the conference of 1922 at Hotel LaSalle, Chicago.

It had been the plan for Mrs. Minor to motor from Springfield but rain prevented this arrangement and the national officer arrived on an early afternoon train. The delegates to the conference felt very much honored by her presence.

Following the call to order by Mrs. H. E. Chubbuck, regent, Thursday morning, the invocation was given by the chaplain, Mrs. Mary C. H. Lee. Mass singing was led by Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Gregory and Mrs. Gregory sang as a solo Mendelssohn's, "Oh Rest in the Lord." Then came a violin solo, "Prayer," by Miss Eloise Capps. Chapter reports and the consideration of various matters of unfinished business followed.

Then came the election of officers. Only two new names appear in the list, Mrs. Clara F. Dodge, member of the Green chapter of Bloomington, was chosen treasurer and the consulting registrar is Mrs. Noble Shumway of Chicago. Mrs. Shumway fills the vacancy caused by the recent death of Mrs. Mary Daily.

Officers Are Named. Unanimous endorsement was given Mrs. William T. Block of Chicago as a candidate for vice-president general of the national organization. Mrs. Block has for thirty years been actively connected with D. A. R. work.

The complete list of officers is as follows:

Regent—Mrs. H. E. Chubbuck, Peoria.
Vice Regent—Mrs. Frank O. Lowden, Chicago.
Vice President General—Mrs. Frank W. Bahusen, Rock Island.
Recording Secretary—Mrs. Nevin C. Lescher, Galesburg.
Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Frank J. Bowman, Sterling.
Registrar—Mrs. Noble Shumway, Chicago.

Treasurer—Mrs. Clara F. Dodge, Bloomington.
Historian—Mrs. Charles E. Davidson, Greenville.
Librarian—Miss Effie Epler, Jacksonville.
Chaplain—Mrs. Mary Lee, Champaign.

The committee on resolutions made a report urging the establishment of a state historical commission, to include representatives from the D. A. R., historical society and state educational organizations. The purpose of such a commission will be to stimulate interest in the study of history, especially as related to the U. S. The Near East relief work was endorsed and the fund for the use of the state librarian, Miss Effie Epler, was increased from $50 to $100. As already stated, by action of the conference a memorial tablet will be placed in the Gov. Duncan Memorial Home here, honoring the memory of Mrs. Eileen Hardin Walworth, daughter of Gen. Hardin.

The report of the credential committee, made by Mrs. Herbert Capps, indicated that 135 visitors came to the city for the conference, with 99 voting members. The largest representation was from Springfield, with a voting strength of 21.

The address of Mrs. George Maynard Minor, president general of the D. A. R., was the principal feature of the afternoon program. The speaker called upon the Illinois members of the organization to meet the spirit of lawlessness and destruction which is appearing in America with the ideals of the founders of the nation. "We have come," said Mrs. Minor, "to the parting of the ways. On one hand are the signposts pointing to home and country, law and order, liberty and constitutional government, while on the other hand are communism and internationalism, disorder, lawlessness, mad license and class dictatorship."

Mrs. Minor's fine address dealt particularly with the Pilgrim forefathers, whose standards of life, she said, must be maintained if we are to endure as a nation. Only a few paragraphs of the address are given:

The Pilgrim Forefathers
"They were English to the core—these Pilgrims. They have left to us the legacy of a common language, a common literature, common ideals of home and morality and an unquestioning faith in the divine government of God."

"Nor must we fail to pay tribute to the pioneer mothers, who sustained the fathers in their toils and dangers, built up the homes and kept the colonies together. They are an inspiring example for ourselves and all other women of America, upon whom has devolved the solemn responsibility of the present. Their spirit must live in us. We must preserve and guard our homes and our children as they did when this country was a wilderness."

"Two years ago our continental congress passed resolutions for the promotion of Anglo-American friendship, for it is realized that it is now more important than ever before to foster and promote this friendship. The greatest good that can be done by these Pilgrim celebrations, and the greatest memorial possible to these stalwart forefathers will be the drawing together of England and America in the bonds of mutual understanding."

True Internationalism
"Each chapter will serve home and country in a very material way by promoting the understanding of our allies which came about during the war. We cannot isolate ourselves from the other nations of the world. True internationalism is a cordial good will and co-operation among nations for the good of all."

"Another field of activity for the D. A. R. organization is the promotion of the public school system of our nation. The very existence of a democracy such as ours depends upon the education of the voting masses. We must see that the educational foundation stones of our country do not crumble away."

"A society such as ours is a mighty force for good. It has an influence which is stabilizing, sane and constructive. Many men are of the opinion that this conservative element in womanhood will be one of the most potent factors in solving the many problems which now confront the nation. Together we must rally the constructive powers of the nation around the constitution and the flag."

Secret Foe Most Deadly

"In 1917 this nation took up arms in defense of its life and liberty. Today it must take up arms against a foe more deadly than German guns, because it is working secretly and underground. It is for us as a society to lay hold of the spiritual armament and build into the nation the spirit of the forefathers. The dream of socialism is a godless nation, one without law or order. In our dream arises the vision of our homes, our families and our free country, protected by law. May that vision remain, a living power in our lives. May the God of our fathers inspire our great society."

MRS. H. E. CHUBBUCK
Re-Elected State Regent of D. A. R.
"One Good Term Deserves Another" to renewed consecration to the service of home and country."

Mrs. Alice Wiles Speaks

Mrs. Alice Bradford Wiles, of the national committee on legislation in the United States congress, was the next speaker. Mrs. Wiles said that she would discuss briefly one of the most important phases of the D. A. R.'s national work—that of endorsing bills introduced in congress. She emphasized the importance of focusing attention and influence upon the main points of the bills which the organization desires to have passed, and regretted the tendency to lend support to some particular project for a few years and then drop it.

The speaker declared that the members of congress are so busy that they have all that they can do to take up the laws which they know the people want, and that therefore it is important to have them understand just which measures are favored by the D. A. R.

Resolutions Adopted

The report of the committee on resolutions was concluded at the afternoon session. It was moved that a vote of thanks be extended to the mayor of the city for his cordial greeting; to Mr. Bancroft for the excellent address on Tuesday evening; to the Congregational church for housing the conference; to the ladies of the church for the excellent meals served; to the users for so ably performing their duties; to the press for full reports of the sessions; to the musicians who contributed so largely to the conference programs; to the citizens of Jacksonville for their hospitality; to the members of the Rev. James Caldwell chapter for planning and carrying to completion the details of the twenty-fifth anniversary.

Made Informal Talk

At the close of the formal program Mrs. Minor talked for a few minutes in an informal way. She called attention to the importance of maintaining interest in the national organization, declaring that it is the things which the D. A. R. has done in a national way that have brought recognition to the society. Mrs. Minor deplored the fact that we, as a nation, are forgetting the war and the things that brought the conflict to pass. She said that while it is true that people do not like to remember disagreeable things, yet Americans should remember the war and its cases enough to make it impossible for such a thing to happen again. Mrs. Minor closed her remarks with the hope that many of the Jacksonville Daughters will attend the national conference in Washington in April.

At the close of the program visiting delegates, conducted by Miss Anne Hinrichsen, paid a visit to Jacksonville State Hospital. A visit had previously been made to the State School for the Blind, where an excellent program was presented by the pupils.

Members of the D. A. R. feel under special obligation to the Boy Scout organization. Under the direction of Scout Master Harry Walker the Scouts have performed valuable service. In countless ways they have aided both the visitors and the resident members of the order. The visiting delegates, aside from the resolutions passed, expressed themselves freely in appreciation of the arrangements made for their entertainment. The several committees had done their work with exceeding care and nothing had been omitted which could in any way add to the pleasure of the visitors or the success of the conference.

JUDGMENT DAY THEME AT MISSION

Sermon by Father Skinner Last Night Laid Emphasis on Rewards of Righteous Living.

An audience of more than 1,000 men attended the mission service at the Church of Our Savior Thursday night. The sermon at this meeting was delivered by Rev. Father Lawrence Skinner, of Kirkwood college. Father Skinner's theme was "The Judgment Day," and he began his discourse by telling the story of two young men who started life with very similar surroundings, one drifting away and forgetting the instructions of home and church, and the other living a life consistent with early teachings.

Then the speaker, in a forceful way, pictured what must have been the life and conduct of those who are on that final day gathered upon the right and receive the approval of their Lord and Master. With equal forcefulness he described those who will be assembled on the other side for the sins of omission and commission done while in the body.

It was in this part of the discourse that the men were brought face to face with the problems of Christian life and the necessity for following in the footsteps of the Savior if the crown of reward is given.

As previously announced, the services of the mission in charge of Rev. Father Kuhn and Rev. Father Skinner will continue thru Sunday night. The visiting priests work strenuously, as services are held at 5:30 a. m., 7 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. each day. Last week the services were especially for women and this week the men of the church are having their opportunity to hear the visitors.

Walk a Block And Save a Dollar

How many times have you seen this sign on billboards, in the newspaper, on stationery? Why do you suppose we use it? What does it mean? There is a reason for everything and there is a reason for these words. They tell you that a furniture store—a good furniture store—because it is located on a street that does not demand high rent (which is called overhead expense)—invites you to come and buy your furniture at a lower price than you can get it elsewhere. Men walk considerable distance to get their favorite smoke and women all have their favorite “shops” which handle distinctly feminine things. A good many people, however, do not figure out that it is the dollar saved that means a bank account saved in the end. It is such places as THE PEOPLES that have enabled thrifty people—young people who need to and have to save every penny—get somewhere. Have you ever seen

GERMAN SCIENCE IS STILL PEACE MENACE

WILMINGTON, Del., March 23.—German science “unless checked by the intelligence of other nations, will menace peace,” the Delaware section of the American Chemical Society was told tonight by Dr. M. T. Bogert of Columbia University in an address on science and disarmament.

In chemical matters, Dr. Bogert said, disarmament must provide for the definite reduction and control of the coal supply, of the fixation of atmospheric nitrogen—the mother substance of all explosives—and reduction of the synthetic dye plants which are sources of all poison gases and the actual manufacturers of most explosives used in war.

“Exports of all such substances,” the speaker declared, “should be carefully regulated, for export trade is the familiar excuse for the maintenance of colossal plants of the late war.”

A CRITICAL SITUATION

Washington.—“Once more the nation is confronted by a critical transportation situation—a situation that demands the thoughtful attention of all the people,” admonishes the Republican Publicity association, thru its president, Hon. Jonathan Bourne, Jr. “Directly, there is a controversy between railroad companies and their employees over the question of wages. Indirectly the issue affects all the people of the country, every seller or buyer of goods and every traveler is affected by the costs of railroad operation. The patrons of the railroads pay the wages.

“As everyone knows there was an increase in railroad wages in 1916 by governmental order after the railroad brotherhoods had threatened to strike if their demands were not met by a certain day and hour. In response to the urgent recommendation of President Wilson, the Adamson act was passed by a Democratic congress and Mr. Wilson signed it, using four different pens which were presented to the heads of the four brotherhoods as mementoes of their victory over the government. Later, under government operation of the roads, wages were increased from time to time, and the scale of compensation remained at the government figure when the roads were turned back to private management. There have been adjustments in wage scales in most large employing concerns but none in railroad employment, for the reason that the law provides for certain conferences, appeals, hearings and formal decisions by a board. The railroads propose a reduction of salaries and wages, from top to bottom, with equitable adjustments which make allowance for differences in rates of increase under governmental orders. In support of their proposal, the railroad managers cite the fact that there have been adjustments in other lines of employment and that government statistics show that a large proportion of the railroad mileage of the country is now operating at a loss.

“If this were a question between the railroad owners and railroad employees alone, the public could afford to sit quiescent and await the outcome. But the public is the party to the controversy most vitally affected, and, therefore, most extensively interested. Needless to remark, the public is and always has been willing to pay a fair and equitable wage and to have the employees work under proper conditions. But, on the other hand, the public is entitled to have wages and working conditions adjusted if out of harmony with wages and conditions in other lines of industry and enterprise. Whether the compensations of railroad employees, if continued on a war-time basis, are out of proportion to wages in industries that have gone thru a readjustment, is a question to be discussed and in the discussion public opinion will be a large if not a controlling factor.

“The railway wage increase began with an arbitrary raise granted by congress, and not thru so-called ‘collective bargaining.’ The chosen representatives of the public authorized the arbitrary increase without the consent of the employers. The employees can hardly justify themselves, therefore, in complaining at an arbitrary decrease in corresponding degree without their consent.

“The situation presented is a critical one—one that will not wait indefinitely for remedies. Many of the railroads are well on the way to receivership if not bankruptcy. The suggestion of the leaders of the four brotherhoods that any change in wage scales can come only after extended hearings—meaning long delay—is one that will not find much support outside of the offices of the brotherhoods. The public is entitled to continuous transportation service at a scale of compensation on a par with that realized by other enterprises, and, whatever the procedure, the public will expect reasonably rapid action.”

ALBERTA PICTURE CENSOR HAS NO HEART

British Province Eliminates Many Things From Movies—Might With Propriety Be Emulated in This Country.

EDMONTON, — By The Associated Press.—One hundred and seventy-four moving picture films were condemned by the censor in Alberta, Canada, last year, while 112 other films suffered eliminations. These figures have been given to the public accounts committee of the legislature by Howard Douglas, chief censor. He said that 10,000 feet of “rough stuff” clapped from films and stored in his archives represented only the unclaimed portion of censored shockers.

Mr. Douglas submitted to the committee copies of the standard which the Alberta censor employs in judging films. This is the standard adopted by the four western provinces of Canada. It puts under the ban pictures portraying “white slavery unless a true moral lesson is conveyed, gruesome scenes involving bloodshed and corpses, offensive drunkenness and exploitation of notorious characters.”

The censorship standard disapproves of pictures dealing with the drug habit, of scenes showing the methods of criminals in murder, house breaking, poisoning, robbery, pocket-picking, lighting and throwing of bombs, use of ether, chloroform, etc., and other methods of persons employing violence against the law. The disapproval of extends to pictures dealing with counterfeiting, with brutal treatment of children and of animals and with scenes dealing with ridicule of races, classes, or social bodies as well as irreverent and sacrilegious treatment of religious bodies or things held to be sacred.

Vulgarity of a “gross” kind also are disapproved such as sometimes appear in slap-stick comedies, instance, burlesques of morgues, funerals, insane asylums, hospitals, etc.

Other things under disapproval of the censorship are bathing scenes “which pass the limit of propriety,” immodest dancing, needless exhibition of women in night dresses and lingerie, and studio and other scenes in which the human form is unduly exposed. Sensual kissing scenes and love-making and vampire scenes also come under the censor's frown.

Freeport

The State Boys' Work secretary on March 14 met the board of directors and the ministers of the city in a joint session, in which the Christian Citizenship Training program was outlined very clearly. The program was received with enthusiasm. It was decided to call a later meeting to which are invited all the boys' leaders of the city. The date set is April 25. The Christian Citizenship Training program recognizes the fourfold development of the boy, in order to make him four square—the social, intellectual, physical and religious. These elements must be recognized and natural normal development must take place, too.

Quincy

The Hi-Y Club of Quincy has been organized with a constructive Christian character building program set in motion. At a recent meeting of the advising group which is made up of high school boys of outstanding Christian character, a program of Christian training was inaugurated. This group is made up of men who lead in basketball, debating and scholastic interests in the school. These boys are backing the work by a real prayer life.

No plans have been made as to the location of the camp. A committee has been appointed by the state association who are looking up sites. Bulletins and folders of the camp will be sent as the work develops.

IMPORTANT CASE PENDING IN KANSAS

Constitutionality of Law Creating
Kansas Court of Industrial Relations Now Before Supreme Court for Decision.

Topeka, Kans.—Constitutionality of the law creating the Kansas court of industrial relations, involving the vital question of whether the tribunal has power to punish strikers—is now before the Kansas Supreme court for decision. Hearing is set for the May term.

The case is an appeal by the state from the ruling of Judge William H. McCamish of the Wyandotte county district court in freeing Jerry Scott, a Rock Island railroad switchman, on the charge of conspiring to induce other employees to strike in violation of the industrial court act. Several other similar cases, arising from the switchmen's strike in April, 1920, have been appealed to the state supreme court, but the Scott case is the first to be reviewed.

Judge McCamish held that section seventeen of the industrial court act violates the state constitution in that it is not clearly expressed in the title of the act. This section of the law makes it a felony to quit work in specified industries invested with a public interest, for the purpose of hindering production or transportation. If Judge McCamish's decision should be upheld, the penalty clause of the act, which has received much criticism from organized labor, would be invalid.

It at first appeared that the cases would be argued on the mere technicality of the alleged defect in the title of the act. Attorneys for defendant in filing their motion in the lower court to quash the information, however, attacked constitutionality of the industrial court act on legal respects. Although Judge McCamish based his opinion on only one of these reasons, the defense will argue the merits of the case on all of the constitutional grounds advanced, contending that if the higher court should be sustained for the other reasons.

The defense in the Scott case maintains that any employee has the fundamental right to strike which cannot be abridged by statute.

The essence of the state's reply to his argument is that there is the common law right to strike which has been modified by court decisions in the United States to apply only to cases where the strike is for a legitimate purpose such as to obtain a just wage or reasonable working conditions. This right, however, is not a constitutional right and can be changed by statute, under the police powers of the state to care for the public welfare, the state argues.

The Woman's Aid Society of Clark's Chapel will hold an Easter Market Saturday, March 26th at Dorwart's Meat Market, beginning at 12 o'clock.

TAMMANY TIGER TAKES TO TEA

Has Changed Ways Since John Barleycorn Departed—Hopes to Develop Into a Real Beau Brummel.

(By The A. P.) New York.—Since John Barleycorn was technically laid to rest and women began to vote, the Tammany Hall tiger—that picturesque animal proverbial in New York politics for more than a century—is cultivating a thirst for soda water and tea, studying books of etiquette and venturing out to the daisies and card parties.

Whether he will take naturally to these changed conditions or not only time will tell. His sponsors today admit he is still awkward with the tea cup and that unconsciously he sometimes reminiscently blows the foam from his cream soda, but they bank on the mythical feline's reputation as adaptable.

In the olden days, of course, the tiger's element was the saloon. There he met his companions in a free and easy manner, entered their conviviality and managed to scatter political seeds on fallow ground. He knew then as "Joe" or "Tim" or "Ole" appellations of intimacy. If one of the number needed a bribe, the tiger or his emissaries found him one. If his wife died, flowers were sent. If anyone was in distress of whatever nature, relief was always forthcoming. For many ears Tammany claimed the reputation of being the greatest charitable institution in the world.

But now things have changed. The tiger's friends find he is not only a bad hunter, now that only Volstead's prescriptions are served. Bereft of his vote-getting elixir, and mindful that the electorate contains an element that requires more delicate courtship, the tiger must become companionable as well as generous.

For the past few months, Charles F. Murphy, the tiger's chief trainer in the new ways of political organization, has equipped his charge with all the social accomplishments, including other necessary paraphernalia designed to keep the old organization in functioning order.

The bulletin boards in the main headquarters in Fourteenth streets are generally covered with placards announcing amateur athletic events, dances and other functions. Club rooms are being fitted up in the hope of attracting women's organizations to hold sessions there. Believers in the tiger's versatility are confident that he may yet become an attractive Beau Brummel and that the Tammany organization will continue to be a force in things political.

CHINESE COURT HAS SERIOUS PROBLEM

Peking, March 23.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Whether adoption by foreigners of Chinese girls deprives the legitimate parents of a right to interfere with their marital plans for the foster daughter is the subject of a suit before the High Court of Justice of Shantung, according to a dispatch from Tsinanfu.

It is alleged that many missionaries have adopted young Chinese girls of poor families, and that these have usually been sent abroad to be educated. The case on trial seeks to establish the right of the girl's foster parents in the selection of a husband.

An instruction from the Supreme Court of Peking is alleged to be in favor of the legitimate parents.

ROBINSON CRUSOE'S ISLAND HEALTH RESORT

Chilean Government Plans to Make It Such—Effort Was Made to Colonize Island Several Years Ago.

Valparaiso, March 22.—(By A. P.)—Juan Fernandez island, 450 miles west of Valparaiso, widely regarded as the spot around which the story of Robinson Crusoe was written, is to be turned into a health resort, according to present plans of the Chilean government.

The island is 13 miles long and four miles wide. Vegetation is abundant. Many kinds of fruits thrive there and the sea in the vicinity swarms with a species of codfish and quantities of seals, according to a recent visitor.

The actual origin of Defoe's story of Crusoe was said to have been Alexander Selkirk, one of a crew of buccanniers, who quarreled with his skipper and was marooned at his own request on Juan Fernandez where he spent four lonely years. The grove where Selkirk is supposed to have lived with his man Friday is still to be seen. A British warship visited the island in 1868 and members of the crew erected a tablet in memory of Selkirk.

Some years ago the Chilean government attempted to colonize the island and gave free passage to emigrants, but the scheme was a failure and the island now has only 200 inhabitants.

PURE BRED DAIRY OF UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

The pure bred dairy herd of the University of Illinois numbers one hundred head. Of this number 16 cows average 728 pounds of butter fat as their yearly production. This is a very high average, and probably unequalled by any other herd of similar size. W. W. Yapp, professor of animal husbandry in the University, recently told most interestingly of the herd, its beginnings and achievements.

"The pure bred dairy herd was founded in 1895," he said. At that time Professor W. J. Fraser purchased from Smith and Powell, owners of the famous Lakeside herd, and the largest importers and breeders of Holstein cattle, a yearling bull and heifer. With this purchase Clothilde Admiral became the first herd sire and Peterje Fairview Clothilde the first foundation female. Soon after this two Holstein cows and two heifers were purchased from J. H. Coolidge & Son, Galesburg, Ill. At that time the leading Holstein breeder of Illinois. From these and a few other purchased females the present Holstein herd has descended.

"When it became desirable to build up a herd of the famous Scotch breed of dairy cattle, Professor Fraser went to the herd of J. F. Conners, Woodville, New York, and purchased three Ayrshire calves. These three became the foundation of our present Ayrshire herd."

The Guernsey herd was begun upon a smaller scale still, one purchased cow being all that was bought for several years. The Jersey herd was begun in 1911, with the purchase of six females.

This is enough to show that the herd has developed from small beginnings. Among the hundred head that now comprises the herd there are a number of animals of note. The Holstein cow Juna Longfield Homestead goes down in history as being Illinois' first 1,000-pound cow. She is at the present state record four-year-old and dam of Illini Homestead Harlot, which sold for $2,000 at five months of age in the Illinois sale last year. Recently Illini Homestead Beechwood has taken the front place and become the state champion and "Illinois" first 1,000-pound cow. These two cows are both daughters of the bull Homestead. The daughters of this bull have remarkable records and the increase in the production of his daughters over their dams is highly significant. His first ten daughters to freshen in the Pure Bred Dairy Herd produced at the average of two years and forty-one days 3,907.7 pounds of milk and 160.65 pounds of butter fat more than their dams at the same age. This increase is probably not equaled by the first ten daughters of any other bull.

The Ayrshire herd has in Bluebell of the Plains, the present state record mature cow of the breed for fat production. The present state champion Ayrshire for milk production is Violet of the Plains, a stable mate of Bluebell. Bluebell is the daughter of a veritable grand old cow of the herd, Belle Douglas of Riverside. Belle was one of the foundation cows of the herd. Her largest production was during her last lactation period, which began at fifteen years, 154 days of age. It was 9,576 pounds of milk and 469.72 pounds of butter fat, a world's record for a fifteen-year-old cow.

The Guernsey herd, which has suffered more reverses than any of the others, is now in point of numbers next to the Holstein herd. The future of the herd rests upon the development of a number of promising heifers now on test and doing especially well. In the Jersey herd is an especially significant individual. Her name is Majesty's Iris and she is a daughter of the matchless sire, Royal Majesty. Her production of 17,469.7 pounds of milk and 955.83 pounds of butter fat makes her the ninth highest producing cow of the breed. She is the mother of no less than three sons who head some of our most promising herds. At present there are a number of high producers in the Jersey herd and to mate with them a double grandson of Royal Majesty. Majesty's Gamage Sensation. It is hoped that a few years will see the development of a herd of outstanding animals.

Dairying has been one of the bright spots in the present price slump in the prices received for agricultural products. The chances are that the future of dairying is good for the public in becoming educated to the value of good milk and the necessity of paying well for it. It is very possible to build up a fine herd of dairy cattle if one has the patience to go slowly and make sure that his cows are "best by test," and not merely star boarders, enthusiastic at feeding time and with no power of performance when it comes to the milk pail.

ILLINOIS HAS WOMAN ARBITRATION AGENT

Miss Harriet Reid Completes First Three Months as Arbitration Agent—Declares Cases Handled Prove Need of Woman Arbitrator.

Springfield, Ill., March 24.—Miss Harriet Reid, the first and only woman to be appointed an arbitration agent on the Illinois Industrial Commission, has handled eight women's cases in the first three months of her new work. It was argued against her appointment that there were not enough women injured in industry to warrant a woman arbitrator.

Commenting on the results of her first two trips, Miss Reid said that the cases coming before her proved the need, and she was pleased with the results obtained. There are eight arbitrators on the staff, four covering Chicago and adjacent vicinity, one covering the Springfield district, two in southern Illinois and Miss Reid a Springfield woman, who has not yet been assigned a territory.

The question whether to call Miss Reid "arbitrator" or "agent" was decided by the board of arbitration for a short time after her appointment. She was called "arbitrator" because she was a woman, and "agent" because she was a woman.

Miss Reid said that her first case was a woman who had been injured by a machine. She was a foreign woman of stock build about 40 years of age. One eye was blind from a previous injury.

One Woman's Testimony. "I poison my hands in acid many times," she said bitterly, "but I work them up and go on working."

"Is it not painful?" she was asked. "It burns and hurts—but I go on—I must work," she said with a smile and a shrug of her shoulders. She held out her gnarled hands and revealed them with interest. The nails were discolored and the cuticle was eaten away by acid. "Good hands—they do much hard work," she commented cheerfully.

Not all of Miss Reid's cases have been women. A Lithuanian laborer, hit from behind by a big scoop shovel which broke his left shoulder and left hip, refused to give up his crutches or make any effort to walk unaided even when he was shown X-ray pictures showing the fractures had healed.

"I am ruined and can't work any more," he kept replying, and all efforts to impress upon his mind his responsibility to his wife and four children had no effect. His mentality, never strong had been so impressed by the shock of the injury that to all intent and purpose he was "ruined" as he said he was.

A Real Optimist. Miss Reid hands it to a negro for real optimism in the face of injury.

"Have you tried to find work since your recovery?" this negro was asked.

"Suttinly not," he answered. "Why not?"

"Why hunt for what ain't?" he parried.

"How are you living then?" "With friends," he replied. I suttinly has some fine friends. A friend that keeps you livin'. A suttinly is some friend, ain't he?"

Miss Reid feels that she is making good and is gradually converting a few of her opponents to the cause of women suffrage. "I am well aware," she said, "that as a woman arbitrator I must not only be as 'able' as a man arbitrator, but much more able, otherwise I shall receive criticism."

"Without exception, I have been treated with all courtesy by the various lawyers and claim adjusters," Miss Reid declared, "and if I am converting anti-women suffragists to the cause of women suffrage, then I am making progress."

INDIAN TRAPERS HAVE GONE TO WORK

Prince George, B. C.—By The A. P.—The Indians of this district, unable to understand the trading process which the fur trade is undergoing, have laid aside their traps and taken up rifle-making. The frisky martens, of which there is an abundant supply, is left strictly to his own devices, and it is expected that nature will soon have replaced the heavy kill of the high-priced seasons.

EXPERIMENT STATION IS LARGE UNDERTAKING

State's Agricultural Experiment Involves Vast Acreage and Large Staff of Workers.

Urbana, Ill.—The large business undertaking that the agricultural experiment station of the University of Illinois has grown to be is illustrated in a brief review of its scope made public here today. The station is reported to have a total farm acreage over the state of 1800 acres, while the sale of its farm products brings in an annual income of $100,000.

The experiment station's staff numbers about 100 men, who are continually working with experiments and sending out the results to the state in bulletin form. The station of today is a growth of 34 years, its establishment dating back to 187.

In addition to the buildings, machinery, and 973 acres of farm land at Urbana, the station maintains 36 experimental fields and orchards in different places throughout the state. There is a field in every area which is representative of a special type of soil. The total acreage of these small fields is 827 acres.

With these resources to work of the College of Agriculture and the Agricultural Experiment Station, the station observes the ideas back of all this in the mind of the farmer and he acquires the best of the development of the agriculture of the state in the largest possible sense of the term, having to do with the business of farming and with the life of the people who follow the farm.

Work of the station is divided into departments of agronomy, animal husbandry, dairying, farm management, and horticulture. Each department publishes bulletins at irregular intervals and mails them out to the names on the mailing list. A name is placed on the mailing list at the request of the person so desiring. Support is derived from federal and state appropriations.

MICHIGAN TO VOTE ON SOLDIER BONUS

Detroit, Mich.—By the A. P.—Placing of a proposal to raise $30,000,000 by sale of bonds for payment of a soldier bonus on the ballot, April 4 has injected interest into Michigan's biennial spring election.

By resolution adopted by the legislature the bonus, if approved by the state, will be paid to men and women who were in the service at the rate of $15 for each month served up to August 1, 1919.

In Detroit a proposed service-at-cost plan submitted by the Detroit United Railway as a solution to the city's long troubled street railway situation "over-shadows all other election interest. The plan provides for unified street car service with a single fare for both company and municipal-owned lines anywhere in the city. A six per cent annual return would be given the street railway company, the rate of fare varying as revenues increased or decreased.

Outside of the bonus proposition the state election concerns minor state officers only.

FARMERS WARNED AGAINST CHINCH BUG

Washington, D. C.—Ware the chinch bug, the Agriculture Department advised wheat farmers in a recent bulletin, adding: "One chinch bug destroyed now may prevent the production of hundreds to infect your wheat field later."

The bugs winter, experts found, in wild grass, leaves along hedge rows and fences and at the edge of woodlands, which should be burned over to oust 'em leaving those not burned to die from exposure.

BILL WOULD CREATE MOVIE CENSOR BOARD

Would Regulate Exhibition of Motion Pictures in State—Other Censorship Bills Introduced.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 24.—(By A. P.)—A state board of motion picture censors is created in a bill introduced in the Illinois legislature by Representative John F. Healy, Democrat, of Chicago.

The board would consist of five members, not more than three of whom shall be of one political party. The censors would be appointed by the governor for terms of four years. They would regulate the exhibition of motion pictures in the state. The bill prohibits the exhibition of motion pictures not registered with the board, the only exceptions being made for religious associations, fraternal societies, libraries, museums and public and private institutions of learning which would be permitted to exhibit films for educational or religious purposes, stereoptical views or slides, advertising announcements or news bulletins slides.

Under the proposed law the board of censors would be required to pass on all films and weed out films which they considered "sacreligious, vulgar, indecent, immoral, unpatriotic, inhuman or of such character that their exhibition would tend to corrupt morals or incite to crime." The bill requires registration fees and fixes the salaries of the censors at $5,000 each.

Another bill introduced by Representative Philip M. Gieseler, Republican, of Chicago, requires manufacturers of motion picture films to be registered with the state department of registration and education and fixes fees for the issuance and renewal of certificates.

Both bills were referred to the house committee on license and miscellany.

DOES NOT SEE HOW HE COULD FEEL ANY BETTER

Ellis Dixon Says He Has Gained 23 Pounds Since Taking Tanlac and is Now in the Best of Health.

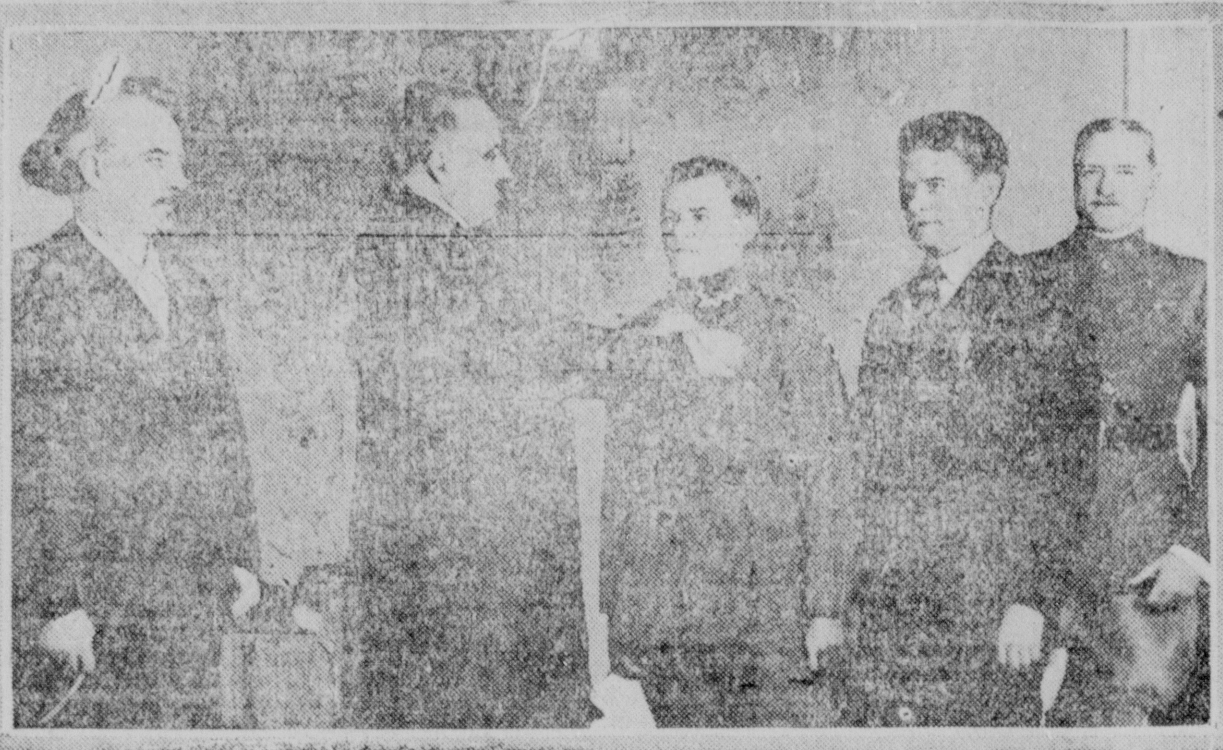

"I have not only gained twenty-three pounds in weight since I began taking Tanlac, but I don't see how I could feel any better than I do now," said Ellis Dixon, of 2116 East Capitol Ave., Springfield, Ill.

"For four years I suffered from indigestion, disordered kidneys and a general run-down condition. I had very little appetite, my stomach was badly upset and I would bloat up after eating until I could hardly breathe and simply suffered agonies from the pain in my stomach. My kidneys bothered me constantly and my back hurt like it was breaking. I was nervous and restless, I hardly ever got any sound sleep and woke up in the mornings tired and worn out and with every bone in my body aching.

"I began taking Tanlac and it was one of the best things I ever did in my life, for I improved almost from the start. I am feeling just fine now and seem to be in perfect health. I have such an appetite I can hardly wait for mealtime to come, and everything agrees with me perfectly. Gas has quit bothering me, the pains have gone from my stomach and I sleep soundly all night long. Tanlac has been the greatest blessing of my life, and I really feel it a duty to tell others about it."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover Drug Co. and J. P. Shreve, Wyle Drug Co., Franklin and Waverly and leading drug store in all cities.—Adv.

AMERICAN AVIATORS RECEIVE POLAND'S HIGHEST AWARDS

medical social service, will increase to 60,000 during the next three years.

The records of the United States Public Health Service indicate that thousands of former service men are developing tuberculosis and other lung affections which are directly traceable to war service. Other thousands are seeking treatment for nerve disorders and mental troubles which, too, may be traced to their origin—war experiences.

Many of the ex-soldiers who are at present unemployed, are not wholly the victims of a season of industrial depression. Their present lack of work is often found to be the result of their having never been properly readjusted to civil life upon discharge from their military forces, and their problems are thus traceable at least indirectly to war service.

There are 60,000 disabled men who are at present receiving vocational training to fit them for an occupation. 125,000 more have just been declared by the federal board to be vocationally handicapped. It has been computed that the Red Cross thru its home service will be able to reach an additional 175,000 disabled men who will require the same type of vocational training.

DO YOU SUFFER FROM SICK HEADACHE?

Peoria, Ill.—"In my younger years I was subject to sick headaches and I used to take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets for relief. For years I haven't had a sign of a sick headache and I give the 'Pellets' all the credit for this permanent relief. For sick or bilious headaches there is nothing better than Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets."—Mrs. M. E. Young, 822 Fifth Ave.

All druggists sell Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets for 25c a vial, or send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for trial size.—Adv.

Yale University and Wesleyan University of Middletown, Conn., are the latest higher institutions to enlist American Red Cross aid in the establishment of Life-Saving Corps among the hundreds of student swimming enthusiasts. What is believed the largest life-saving corps in the world at the United States Naval academy, Annapolis, by the Red Cross, there has been daily evidence of increasing interest in this branch of First Aid work at educational institutions.

The corps organized at Annapolis already has enrolled more than 200 members, including many of the officers of the Academy as well as from the ranks of the midshipmen.

Colleges with organized swimming teams under the direction of a capable coach offer a splendid opportunity for Water First Aid instruction. The increasing number of calls upon the American Red Cross for the establishment of Life-Saving Corps indicate the enthusiasm with which the slogan "Every swimmer a Life Saver" is being met.

The appropriation of an additional $500,000 for the relief of the famine sufferers in China has been officially announced by the American Red Cross. This brings the total donations by the organization for Chinese relief to $1,000,000. Fifty thousand Chinese sufferers are being fed today by the American Red Cross in the section of the famine area allotted to the organization, according to latest reports from John E. Baker, in charge.

When the American Red Cross proffered its aid in behalf of the starving Chinese, it was decided that the best method for aiding them was to provide them with work and pay for their labor with food supplies. Money would have been useless to purchase food. The Red Cross buys its supplies in Manchuria and other places, ships it to the famine area and pays it out thru a carefully directed commissary department to the heads of families employed in road construction.

WILL GIVE READINGS AT WOMAN'S COLLEGE

Prof. S. H. Clark, of the University of Chicago, is to return to the Woman's College, to give two readings, Friday, April 1.

In the afternoon Mr. Clark will read Shakespeare's "King Lear." In these days when Shakespearean plays are so rarely produced, the opportunity to hear so great a reader present so great a play is a privilege indeed.

In the evening Mr. Clark will read "Androcles and the Lion," by George Bernard Shaw. The combination of humor and seriousness in this characteristic Shaw play makes it especially good material for a reader.

The college is bringing Mr. Clark here as the result of the student body's interest in his reading last December. At that time Mr. Clark came for the Woman's club and read Dr. Kingwater's "Abraham Lincoln."

Come Ride With Me In The New "Four" Sedan.

JAKE.

Oh Boy! Some Car! Listen!

It will pay you to drop in here at your very first opportunity and see the new Oldsmobile Four.

We have every reason to believe that when you examine its positive superiorities of size, appearance, comfort and power, you will say its value goes beyond anything you have previously known in a four-cylinder car of like price.

Its valve-in-head motor develops 43.8 horse power—ample for any possible need.

You will find too, that this car's fine appearance will bear the closest inspection—that its niceties of finish and body details fully confirm your first good impression.

Ease of riding, always an Oldsmobile characteristic, has been assured by wide, deeply upholstered seats and extra long springs that cradle the body.

As you probably know, automobile manufacturers did not build up the usual heavy reserve of cars last winter for spring business. So that right now is not a minute too soon to make up your mind about this unusual value if you want to avoid possible delay in delivery.

DECREASE SHOWN IN NUMBER OF PRISONERS

Some Give Prohibition as Cause of Decrease—Petty Crimes Decrease but More Serious Crimes Increase.

Chicago.—(By The A. P.)—Decrease in the total population of state prisons in the middle and southwestern sections is attributed in part to prohibition by a number of state prison authorities. Other reasons noted included high wages and shortage of labor, the indeterminate sentence and the merit system. The falling off for 16 states, as noted in reports collected here by The Associated Press, amounted on Dec. 1, 1920, to nearly an eighth of the total on Dec. 1, 1914.

In commenting on the decrease in states where it occurred, more prison officials named prohibition than any other single reason. Several citing industrial conditions, gave this cause greater weight than prohibition.

From one of the states that reported increase, Ohio, the warden of the state penitentiary reported he did not believe that prohibition had decreased crime.

The decrease in prisoners was not uniform, but took place in nine states, where the total decrease wiped out an increase in six states and showed a net decrease for the entire sixteen, one remaining stationary.

New features in the character of crime and criminals were noted by several state officials.

"I believe that there has been a general decrease in the prison population of the country," said Henry Town, warden of the Wisconsin state prison at Waupun. "This can be attributed in part to the restricted sale of intoxicating liquor and also to the fact that labor has been scarce and high wages have been paid.

Not Many Petit Offenders
"We do not get as many petit offenders as formerly but the crimes committed are of a much more serious nature. I believe it is also true that a great many of these serious crimes are being committed and the offenders are not being caught. I think you can sum up the situation by saying that petit crime has decreased and a more serious form of crime has taken its place and greatly increased and that the percentage of arrests for the more serious crimes is much less than the arrests formerly for petit crimes."

Prohibition was said by Downer Mullen, secretary of the Minnesota state board of control, to be one of the principal reasons for the decrease in number of inmates in the Minnesota state prison at Stillwater. John T. Burkett, secretary of the Arkansas penitentiary commission, gave the passage and enforcement of prohibition laws credit for the decrease there in the number of state convicts.

Officials of the Kentucky prisons, where the greatest drop in the 16 states was noted, said that the decline there was due in large part to the unprecedented period of employment and high wages probably more than to prohibition. They said they did not expect their prison population to stay at its low point for long.

In Ohio, Warden Thomas said that the main reason why the state penitentiary population had not decreased in the last few years was the indeterminate sentence. It holds prisoners longer, he said. Another reason given by Warden Thomas was that Ohio police were more active than those in some other states and were bringing in more criminals.

Says It Is Not Prohibition
"The reformer claims it is prohibition that reduces our prison population," wrote J. R. Jordan, chief clerk, criminal record department, Texas State Penitentiary. "They also claim that since prohibition has been in effect 'crime has decreased 63 per cent.' Of course they do not expect any one that is informed to believe them, but it serves their purpose to fool the people a part of the time."

In Missouri, William R. Painter, chairman of the state prison board, said that prohibition was one cause of the decrease in number of prisoners and that crime had diminished noticeably along with prohibition. Mr. Painter said that the merit system, under which prisoners are given a chance to reduce their sentences by good behavior, had operated likewise to cut down the state prison population.

BACK TO NATURE SUMMER SCHOOL
Emporia, Kan.—(By A. P.)—The vacant lot, the hay mow and old swimming hole will find real competition next summer in the curriculum of the summer school of the Kansas State Normal school here.

"To go to school in the woods to assign one's own lessons; to gain first hand information in local mills, stockyards and stores; to be instructed in scout craft, and to swim in a modern pool twice a week" is the way the prospectus of this newly devised course of study reads. Classes for both boys and girls are to be formed.

The plan adopted by Dr. H. G. Lull, director of teacher training, is to have the pupils take trips to various industries in the city and out into the country to gather material and make observations. The information thus gained will furnish largely the basis of investigation and study in the class room on the other days of the week.

On each trip the students will be under the direction of a supervising teacher, accompanied by one or two competent scout leaders and student teachers. Returning from a hike the children will enjoy a plunge in the school natatorium.

The observations and questions raised on each trip will be correlated on the following day and arranged under the proper subjects for study. These propositions may require geography, arithmetic, zoology, art or any other combination of common branches for their solution, it was explained.

The scout leaders will be obtained from the physical training department of the normal, and must be competent to give instruction in scout craft or girl camp fire lore.

The novel curriculum was designed by Miss Jennie Williams, a normal instructor, in response to the request of many parents that a course be formed to interest children from six to thirteen years old during the summer vacation months.

COTTON INDUSTRY GETTING IMPORTANT

Buenos Aires, March 24.—(By A. P.)—The cotton industry in Northern Argentina has quadrupled in importance in three years, as a result of aid given to the farmers by the state railways. In 1918-19 approximately 12,000 acres were planted, while the 1920-21 crop embraces an area of about 50,000 acres.

The crop yield is from 1,200 to 1,600 pounds per acre, according to statistics published by the railroads, one-third of which is fiber and the rest seed. A gin and a cotton seed mill have been constructed to take care of the crop. The great problem of the Argentine cotton farmer is lack of labor for picking the crop. Attempts have been made to use machinery for this, but these have been reported as being only partially successful.

EASTER VACATION IN JACKSONVILLE SCHOOLS

Thursday marked the beginning of the Easter recess in the Jacksonville public schools and colleges. Much bustle, hurry and excitement prevailed in the schools where the students were going "home" for vacation.

As is always the case there was a great exodus from the colleges and the activity of the students will be missed in Jacksonville for the next few days.

Mrs. Dean Meyers was among Thursday shoppers in the city from Murrayville.
